Teach the 278 most important words young readers should recognize by sight. Reproducible story pages fold twice to create a book. With the story on one side and the lesson on the other, it's easy for parents to participate, too. Vocabulary is controlled (rebus replace nouns), and new words are systematically reviewed in context in the stories, practice pages, review pages, and games. Book 1 introduces 82 sight words in 20 stories about work and play.
