Confession: Samuel Elijah Johnson Series (Volume 3) Troy Lambert

A self-made man, he sinned, but found Redemption. But Temptation is everywhere... Samuel Elijah Johnson spent time in prison, but earned his Juris doctorate while incarcerated. Now on the outside, he thinks he is on the right track. Until an attempt on his life brings him face-to-face with his past, and the family he'd rather forget. His mother's belief that he is some kind of Messiah haunts him, and he discovers she is not alone. There is an entire church that shares her beliefs, and more. They think they are doing God's work, and convince Sam to join them. But evil rears its ugly head, and he discovers a different kind of prison. One that glorifies confession, demands obedience, and punishes transgression. Will he take his place among their leaders? Or will he try to walk away, only to find someone is willing to kill for his final Confession?
