Broken trust and a shattered heart...

In an attempt to run from her troubling past, Chloe lands a job as a business manager at a doctor's office in a small town.

Richard, the handsome local doctor, is polite, well-established, funny, and an avid reader just like Chloe. As she begins to develop feelings for the man, she can't help but wonder if he's viewing her the same way. He's yet to make a move, despite rumors circulating that the two are indeed an item.

Even having learned of her past, the two quickly become inseparable and a romance blossoms between them. One morning, Chloe receives unexpected news that makes her sick to her stomach... literally. She tries finding a way to tell Richard, but her haunting past is making her hesitant.

When she's finally musters the nerve, she learns she may have been completely wrong about the doctor she had so greatly admired. Her world comes crashing down around her as she realizes this man isn't who she thought he was. Is he just as bad as the ex she ran away from?

" This is a complete novella (approximately 34,000 words) with happy ending and no cliffhangers.
