He turned toward his partner and breathed something in his own language before turning back. The orangeeyed man took his leave quickly. "Earthen you say? So the Baksendians really did go to Earth and steal an inhabitant! Come. Come with me. We have much to talk about." He lowered himself down to one knee and dipped his head in a bow. "I am Atemaru Nelet Sasavella, leader of the Yuvaba Clan of Niidlak."

A leader...I took in his appearance, now that he was in the sun. His eyes still glowed just as strongly in the sunlight, and his white hair looked like sparkling snow in the brilliance of the heat. He was slightly tanned, probably from exposure to the outside, and had powerful muscles through his arms and legs. His hands were large, as was the rest of his stature. As he straightened back to his feet, I realized just how big he truly was. He stood perhaps a head and a half taller than I did, and I felt absolutely tiny in comparison. With one swift swipe, Atemaru could probably kill me. He looked that powerful...toned by years of service as a warrior. Seeing all of this only proved to me that I was a very long way from home.

What is going to happen to me? Why am I here? What will the warlord do with me?
