Carry Like Mary: You have superpowers. It's time to change the world. John Edward Burton

You have superpowers. It's time to change the world. Yes, I know, that sounds quite sensationalistic and like unrealistic hype. How sad that is! You may not feel like you have such awesome power burning through you. That's OK. It's how you handle that power that matters. Too many resort to living a life that looks little different than that which atheists live. They presume themselves to be limited by their human strength and ability—and sadly, so do many Christians. Others are quite different. They are determined to let the fire of God blast through them in the midst of their frail human condition. If God is fully within you, your weakness and your inability suddenly become meaningless!
