A young girl called L'Aysia Williams living with her mother, her step siblings and stepfather is a fourteen year old with big dreams and ambitions, the freedom to love, the right to live the life of a fourteen year old, to have a dream and to live that dream. We all want to be loved and experience love, but what are we supposed to do when the people we love don't love us back? What do you when your mother doesn't love you, who are you supposed to trust when your stepbrother is the one abusing you? Who do you turn to when you are left alone in the dark? What if the light at the end of the tunnel is actually a train coming towards you? What do you do when there is nowhere to run, nowhere to hide, and no one to turn to? For L'Aysia, life is a lesson and she is left to choose between a blessing or a curse, but the question is which one will she choose because when life gets tough, Big Girls Don't Cry.
