Human Rights (University Casebook Series) Louis Henkin, Sarah Cleveland, Laurence Helfer, Gerald Neuman, Diane Orentlicher

This casebook provides a comprehensive, accessible, and up-to-date analysis of international human rights law. It emphasizes the relationship between the international, regional, and national legal systems (with a particular focus on the United States), features an intellectual and historical development of the idea of human rights, and analyzes recent developments in areas including corporate responsibility, terrorism and human rights, the rights of refugees, international criminal law, and the role of NGOs. The first edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to address important and “hot button” issues and topics in international human rights law. These include: an introductory case study on human rights, extraordinary renditions and extraterritoriality, extensive coverage of regional human rights systems and NGOs, terrorism and human rights, human rights litigation in U.S. courts, corporations and human rights, refugee law, the right to health <
