The doorbell sounded, waking Mercy up from her slumber. Of course, she hated every single bit of it, since in her dream, she was about to make out with this gorgeous woman. She felt like killing whoever was responsible for this interruption, but being the kick-ass lawyer that she was, she knew that if she did just that then she would most likely face the full force of the law.

So she tried as much as possible to calm herself down as she tiptoed towards the door and see who the person was.

Mercy was expecting the new nanny. The thought actually made her rethink about her disappointment about the rude interruption. Now all that mattered was getting to know her. She finally took a deep breath and opened the door. There she was, the most beautiful woman Mercy had ever seen, dressed in perfect nanny attire and ready to work.

“Hello, my name is Brenda Moore. I am from the Happy Nanny Day Care Institution. Here at your request.”

Mercy didn't even quite catch that. She was lost in her world of fantasy. Will she fall in love with the new nanny? Will the nanny fall in love with her? Will their love story be in the cliché happily-ever-after fashion?

Keep on reading to find out more on it.
