An ambitious reporter is determined to prove to the world Yetis exist, even at the cost of her life. But when she's confronted with the truth, will she choose fame and fortune or keep the secret and the man she desires all to herself?

* * * *

Reporter Kaylee Vonn is determined to prove Yetis exist. Not even avalanche danger and certain death can deter her from her goal. But her plans are thrown awry by the handsome, towering shopkeeper Pete. She's sure he has a secret line to the Yeti. She doesn't know how right she is...

From the moment he meets the nosy reporter, Pete knows she'd make a perfect mate. Except if she exposes his ancient race's secrets, she'll die. Can he stop her snooping before she does something stupid and pays the ultimate price?

This 20,000 word short story appeared in Sexy to Go, Christmas Edition. It contains a cabin with no heat, one stubborn reporter, and a sexy Yeti with an aching heart.
