Detective Greg Volenti has led a boring, lonely life up until now. All he's ever cared about was his job, and catching the bad guys. After getting a lead in the murder he's investigating, he gets into his car to head to the precinct. But someone's in there waiting for him and knocks him out. He awakens later in the middle of the forest. No one's around for miles, except a sexy, unconscious man lying near him. Who is this gorgeous man and what are they doing here together? Micah Lawson wakes up when a handsome stranger shakes him. Frightened, at first he thinks this man's the kidnapper who brought him here. But they soon realize they're both the victims in this sick game. They must put aside their doubts and fears and trust one another to survive. It proves easier said than done. Micah has an evil secret he's keeping at all costs. As their sexual attraction and feelings of love blossom, so does the danger lurking in the forest. They aren't alone. Someone's listening, watching, and waiting for the perfect time to attack. Can they escape before whoever's stalking them makes their move?  A Siren Erotic Romance
