Potty training isn't fun, it's not playtime, and well sometimes it just STINKS! Anyone who has ever tried to potty train a child knows it's easier to train a cat to eat with a fork sometimes. Have you been struggling? Tried Everything? There are a variety of different tips and tricks that people insist will work every time, but it seems they take forever to just "click". In three days your child can grasp what that feeling means and where to go when it hits, at the very least to let you know it's coming. Diapers are pretty nasty, and they cost a fortune so the sooner your child learns when and where to go the faster you can save a little money and start letting them feel more grown up. Even if your child isn't quite ready to potty train it's a great idea to be prepared and ready. Until about 20 months old most children will pee so often that it's going to be impossible to accomplish so starting at an appropriate time will also greatly increase your chances of success. Using these tips you can understand what your child faces and how to avoid pitfalls before they happen. Here are a few things you can look into that will help the process go a lot smoother for both you and baby.

Here is what you will learn after reading this book:

- Is your child ready?
- The three day process
- Choosing a potty
- Potty training outside the house
- Number two is difficult
- Rewards, Rewards, Rewards
