What goes up: The Prologue Jane Geneva

Did you ever seek for a partner in an elevator? Brandon had to.

Brandon has just recovered from his sex addiction. But during the process of struggling with that, he became alcoholic. Weighing those issues, he realized that it was far healthier to embrace his sex addiction.

But he had a problem. He couldn't go to the bars to meet new girls. There was always a risk that he won't resist a drink. Never before he had a problem to seduce the ladies, but it was always happening in the bars.

Then his big desire solved that problem. Brandon was working as an elevator mechanic. So he engineered an elevator device to help him meet the girls in the lift. He installed the first device into his building. Will that help him to seduce the unsuspecting girls?
