Real Heroes, Real Battles: The Men Who Won America's Wars includes all of the author's hard to find non-fiction articles covering America's heroic past that up until now were only available in magazines such as Military History, World War II, and America's Civil War. Collected here for the first time, readers will meet such unforgettable personalities as Gen. John Stark, victor at the Battle of Bennington; legendary Texas Ranger Rip Ford, Creek Confederate Gen. Stand Watie; General of the Armies Douglas MacArthur, and many others! Thrill to great battles of the American Revolution including Bennington, Klock's Farm, and King's Mountain; the Civil War including Honey Springs, Sabine Crossroads, and Brownsville; and World War II battles in both the European and Pacific theaters including those of La Fiere, Port Lyautay, Kerama Retto, and the liberation of Manila. History comes alive in these authoritative yet entertaining page turners celebrating America's past each accompanied by illustrations, maps, and diagrams detailing all the action of the various battles. Fans of American history will not want to miss this collection. Published by Sons of Liberty Publishing, LLC.
