Lee Marvin and the Long Night: A Short Story by Nick Cole Nick Cole

"Someone once let me have it straight..." begins small time private eye Lee Marvin in this short SciFi Noir night journey through someone's vision of a past that never was. Twists, turns, Henry the Eighth and a murderous shoe clerk named Norton Morris stop at nothing to wreck the universe by using a down and out knight in dirty armor to escape reality. A dame with silver eyes and a legendary gun that might be the future's Excalibur won't be enough to make the sun rise over Bay City in the morning unless Lee Marvin plays all his cards just right. The Matrix meets The Maltese Falcon in this fun romp through the gritty side of a dream.
