She's back in town...

Three years ago, April Sandoval ran away, leaving behind her broken heart. Now, she's adopted a little boy and desperately needs her family's support. Aspen is a small town, and there's no way she'll be able to return without running into Seth, but she's determined her past won't interfere with her future.

He's going to make sure she stays this time...

Seth Moore is still angry with April for vanishing from his life with no way to find her. She believed the words of a jealous conniver, which cost them both their hearts. But one look at her, and Seth knows she still holds his heart. He's hell-bent on making her see the truth so she'll give their love a second chance. But in order to win her forever, he'll have to battle secrets and lies strong enough to keep them apart.
