EVERYTHING About You Speaks, Mastering the Language That's Louder Than Words Cathrine Hatcher

This enlightening book, Everything About YOU Speaks, helps you explore how we see and judge people differently based on their appearance. Learn the perceptions and beliefs people use to formulate that all-important first impression. You'll also learn simple techniques to intentionally dress and act in a way that influences how people view you and your message. Discover how you can carefully and purposefully create the image you project or the message you convey through color psychology, wardrobe psychology and body language techniques. Discover how you can purposefully present yourself, communicate your message effectively, build rapport, and create mutually beneficial relationships, all based on respect. When you are aware of the messages you communicate, you'll be amazed by the positive impact it can have on your life and in the relationships you develop.
