A Killer lurks in Headley Cross...

...And Holly Carmichael is the only woman to survive his attack. Now she lives in fear, searching for normalcy and trying to put her life back together. When she meets Kyle Stevens, he turns her world upside-down. He's as exasperating as he is appealing. How can Holly make sense of her awakening feelings when she's so unsure of Kyle? His voice is familiar, he's left-handed, and he wears the serial killer's cologne. Who is he...really? As Holly struggles to restore her damaged faith, she must find the strength to trust once again--in Kyle and in God.

Kyle Stevens isn't ready to live again. Racked by guilt, he's afraid to feel. His sole focus is finding the Headley Cross serial killer-his girlfriend's murderer. That is, until he meets Holly Carmichael. He's drawn to Holly, vows to protect her where he failed to protect his former love. But Holly makes him feel again, emotions quickly morphing into something much more dangerous to his hardened heart.

When the serial killer returns to finish what he started, only a miracle can save them...but then, it's the Season for Miracles.
