six kinds of crazy (six degrees of separation) (Volume 1) Becka Drum

For Sara Clarke there is a reason for everything: her empty house, her lonely marriage, her solitary life, but it's all making her six kinds of crazy. When her sister convinces her to go to a concert alone, a twist of fate and a quirky little talent push Sara into something extraordinary. She can no longer rationalize ignoring her problems when her new rock star friends show her that life is worth living. Sara becomes especially close to Evansgate bassist Chris Eck, who is determined to make her a part of his world. As the lines of friendship between Chris and Sara start to blur, Sara questions the choices she made. Can she change her life or is it crazy to even try?
