Religions: Myth or Reality? Ibrahim Abdel-Motaleb

Is there a creator or creators for this universe? If so, who is he, and what are his attributes? Did this creator or creators send us religions to follow? If so, which one, and how can we become certain of its authenticity? If you follow a religion, how can you be sure that it is the true one? Is it because your parents follow the same religions, or because you just have faith in it? Could it be because your scripture or religious leader says so? If you follow your religion because of one or all of the above reasons, you are not alone. The followers of all other religions believe the same way. But, unfortunately, they came to a contradictory conclusion: they believe that their religions, not yours, are the true ones. Who is right? You or them! To know the answer, read this book: Religions! Myth or Reality? The book provides you with a comparative religion study that shows how one can authenticate a religion with a logically infallible proof. After you read the book, you can draw your own conclusion and answer the question: Who is right?
