Up From The Grave Charles C. Brown

Kitrina (Kit) Townsend had it all. A trust fund husband who wanted a stay-at-home wife. A home on the ridge overlooking the town of Mount Haven that was the envy of many. A future that promised a life of peace and ease. Then her husband, Samuel Jay Townsend the Third, was robbed of his fortune. He shot the man responsible and had to go on the run. The trust fund gone, Kit turned to the only talent she had to keep from losing everything. When Samuel had been missing for more than seven years, Kit went to court and had him declared legally dead. And then the unthinkable happened.
