Governmental GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) consists of all the promulgated accounting principles applicable to financial accounting and reporting for state and local governments. Published annually, this work continues to serve as the only comprehensive, practical research tool for use by governments and their auditors to guide them through governmental accounting and financial reporting. It covers: GASB, FASB, and interpretations of the important governmental accounting standards, principles, technical bulletins and AICPA statements of position; and the practical implementation of the information found in the new accounting pronouncements. It includes disclosure checklists for government financial statements, flowcharts, and diagrams.
