Three hilarious and well-crafted plays all come together to tell a beautiful tale of Christmas:

A Christmas of Many Parts: 3 men and 2 women; approx. 30 minutes in length. A touring theatre troupe performing a traditional Christmas Nativity play must go on with the show when 8 of their 12 actors are missing. Mayhem ensues when the 4 remaining actors draft an enthusiastic usher to play “many parts”.

En Dash: 3 men and 3 women; approx. 40 minutes in length. A substitute secretary and a substitute Santa meet in the executive office of a department store and find love. Comedy ensues when several people are forced to hide under a desk, but all ends very happily.

The Littleboro Valley Story: 2 men and 2 women (doubling several characters); approx. 35 minutes in length. A comedy about a small Texas town where an idle comment about Christmas mushrooms into a movement to vote on canceling Christmas.
