Dessert Comes First Lori Baltazar

Dessert Comes First is the celebrated blog of Philippine food writer Lori Baltazar, and is now the title of her first book. It is a love story about food told in a distinctive combination of essays, old and new, and recipes, savory and sweet. In addition, profiles of ten of the Philippines' most eminent chefs and home bakers contribute a crisp dynamic to this body of work.

The book is also the author's homage to sweet. In her inimitable way of celebrating the craft of baking and her love for dessert, she shares some of her very own recipes, including the recipe for her famed cheesecake, kept secret until now.

Created carefully and thoughtfully, Dessert Comes First is a pleasure, engaging all the senses with its thick matte paper, fluid layout, and riveting photography, all bound together by solid, intelligent food writing. This is an offering that fans of the blog and food lovers will feast on.

EDITORIAL REVIEWS:

"'Dessert Comes First' is ... a worthy, updated successor to the compelling work of definitive Filipino food writers like the late great Doreen Gamboa Fernandez and others. The result is a book about food that is perfectly personal and practical, a compelling culinary coming-of-age story from one of our best food writers, online or otherwise." - Ruel S. De Vera, Philippine Daily Inquirer

"Love it and the stories surrounding the recipes. Lori's personality and enthusiasm fairly leap off of every page." - Robert Wemischner, pastry chef and author of The Dessert Architect

"Believe us when we say if you don't already love Dessert Comes First the blog, then you'll love Dessert Comes First, the book." - Yahoo!
