Are you thinking about stepping into the minefield of self-publishing? Have you already taken the plunge? Feel like you're just one of thousands of voices trying to be heard in the Amazon Author jungle? Ever feel like screaming "Do You Know Who I Am?!!"

Well Ron Alias knows exactly how you feel. Having entered the world of self-publishing during the Autumn of 2013 he has had his fair share of successes and failures already. In "Do You Know Who I Am?" he shares his thoughts on what has worked - from preparing your manuscript to pricing your work. Short and to the point with the usual Ron Alias humour thrown in he also takes you through the myriad world of social media and promoting your book to best effect.

The first part of this work gives some additional insight into his first self-published novel AOA - how it all came together, the plot, the characters and important elements of the story. If you've read it then you'll gain a different perspective on why it all ended the way it did. If you've not read AOA then be prepared for a hat full of spoilers.
