Good for him. But all the training could never have prepared him for the hell that was about to break loose in his life. He thought his recent promotion would give him the easy street but his reality steered far from it. Sent on a routine murder investigation in Brooklyn, Start finds himself on a plane to Jamaica to thwart the greatest planned heist known to the West.

But while in the island paradise everything isn't irie mon. Someone is out to get him and he must figure that out and try to foil the heist before he is shipped back to NY in a body bag.

A crime thriller reminiscent of James Patterson's Alex Cross Series, START explores the wisdom of knowing who your friends and your enemies are. Sometimes your friends are your greatest enemies and your enemies your greatest friends.
