I love you

Love Heartly had achieved everything she set out to in life. She has started in a bestselling movie, been the lead in a television drama show and written a book. She is well off and has a home and all the material things she could wish for. Despite that, there is one thing missing...love.

Love is desperate to fall in love and hear the immortal words-'I love you' spoken for her and her alone. She doesn't know where to find it though.

Love becomes involved in a new television project and is surprised when she is cast in the lead role-opposite another woman. Storm Winters is tall, friendly and attractive and the women develop a rapport straight away. As Love and Storm begin to play the role of lovers onscreen, an off-screen relationship develops.
