PARENTHOOD

Little Hannah McShane was her parents' pride and joy, linking two hearts for all eternity. So why did Mommy and Daddy insist on a long-distance marriage—living miles apart, sharing only shy, awkward visits, saving all their love for her?

True, Hannah was technically another man's child. But Drew McShane had married ranching heiress Kim Campion and given baby Hannah his name. And even a tot could tell that rugged Drew and genteel Kim secretly adored each other. So what would it take to make Mommy and Daddy see the light, admit their love...finally live as husband and wife?
